

Edward E. Quiros, M.D., M.B.A., F.A.C.S., F.I.C.S., CMCM

---

EDUCATION:

- 2004- Concord University School of Law ( Second year Law Studies)
- 1999: Master of Business Administration, University of South Florida, Tampa, Florida
- 1970: Doctor of Medicine, University of Santo. Tomas, Manila Philippines
- 1965: Bachelor of Arts, University of Santo. Tomas, Manila Philippines
- 1964: Bachelor of Science, University of Santo Tomas, Manila Philippines

POSTGRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION:

- 1969-1970 : USAF Hospital Clark, Rotating Internship
- 1970-1971 : USAF Hospital Clark, Residency, Internal Medicine
- 1971-1972: City Hospital Center at Elmhurst/Mt. Sinai Hospital New York, NY, Surgical Internship
- 1972-1974: New York Medical College Hospitals, NY, NY Resident, General Surgery
- 1974-1975: New York Medical College Hospitals, NY, NY Senior Resident, General Surgery
- 1975-1976: New York Medical College Hospitals, NY, NY Chief Resident, General Surgery
- 1976-1977: New York Medical College Hospitals, NY, NY Fellow, Hand Surgery (Under Dr. Sylvester Carter)

BOARD CERTIFICATION:

- American Board of Surgery, Certified in 1981, Recertified in 1992, Recertified in 2002. Certification status up to 2013
- American Board of Managed Care Medicine, 2001

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS/POSITIONS:

- 1976-1977: Metropolitan Hospital Center, NY, NY Assistant Attending Surgeon
- 1976-1977: Midtown Hospital, NY, NY Associate Attending Surgeon

- 1977- present: Golden Plains Community Hospital, Borger, Texas
 Attending Surgeon, General/ Hand and Upper Extremity
- 1977-1972 Hansford County Hospital, Spearman, Texas
 Attending Surgeon, General/Hand and Upper Extremity
- 1988-present: Memorial Hospital, Dumas, Texas
 Consultant in Hand and Upper Extremity Surgery
- 2002-present: Pampa Regional Medical Center, Pampa, Texas
 Consultant in Hand and Upper Extremity Surgery

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

- Fellow, American College of Surgeons
 Fellow, International College of Surgeons
 Fellow, American Society of Abdominal Surgeons
 Fellow, Society of Philippine Surgeons in America
 Member, Surgical Society of New Society of New York Medical College
 Member, American Society of Contemporary Medicine
 Member, New York Academy of Sciences
 Member, American College of Physician Executives
 Member, Top of Texas County Medical Society
 Member, Texas Medical Association

PROFESSIONAL and CIVIC POSITIONS:

1993-1996: Member, Amarillo Diocesan School Board

- Advised and recommended to the Bishop and the Superintendent on matters affecting the Catholic schools in the Diocese.
- Revised Diocesan School Board Policy and procedures
- Develop marketing and promotional activities

1992- present: Board of Regents, Frank Phillips College. Elected in 1992, Re-elected in 1994, Re-elected in 1996 ( 6 year term), Re-elected in 2002 and 2008 for another 6 year term.

- Subcommittee developed performance evaluation for College President, and Board of Regents Self-Evaluation
- Helped developed the College's workforce Development Center and College off-campus branch to serve area-wide industries
- Participated in the study and implementation of the College's computer, and information technology systems.

1989-1994 : Board of Directors, Hutchinson County Hospital District

- Ad Hoc Committee that worked for the passage of an enabling legislation by the Texas Legislature creating the Hospital District
- As President of the Board, established the hospital's pension system for its employees
- Leadership role in having the hospital accredited 3 times by JCAHO
- As one of the 3 members of the Finance committee, oversaw the operations and the evaluated the financial performance of the hospital on a monthly basis

1988-1988; 1991-1992, 1996-1997: Delegate to the Texas Medical Association's House of Delegates

- Served on the Council on Scientific and Public affairs that recommended resolutions brought to the floor of the House for discussion and adoption as policy matters.

1981-1983, 1997-1998: Chief of Staff, Golden Plains Community Hospital

1979-1987, 1994, 1999-2000, Chief of Surgery, Golden Plains Community Hospital

- Was actively involved in leadership role in 3 JCAHO accreditation process for the hospital. As chief of Surgery, was instrumental in obtaining ACS Trauma Designation for the hospital.

2002, 2003: President, Society of Philippine Surgeons in America

- First to hold the office of the President for 2 years in a row; was the Society's Executive Secretary before becoming President.

2000- present: Editor-in-Chief, Philippine Surgeon, the official Publication of the Society of Philippine Surgeons in America

Member in Different Local Civic and Political Organizations in Texas

Have presented papers and delivered talks and continues to be a speaker at surgical meetings and symposia locally, nationally and internationally on Hand and Upper Extremity, General Surgery and on Management and Service Quality topics.

PERSONAL

Married to Corazon Panlilio-Quiros, MD (Obstetrician-Gynecologist)

Children: Roderick Michael Quiros, M.D., Surgeon ( Surgical Oncology),

Christine Quiros, Retail Analyst, VP, Citicorp, Chicago, Illinois

Emily Mathis-Quiros, MD (Daughter-in-Law) Pediatric Anesthesiologist

Three Grandchildren: Olivia Marie, 5 years, Noemi, 3 years old, Isabelle Claire 6 months